

10th EUSAIR Forum

Georgioupolis, Crete 6-7 May 2025

Bridging Horizons: Strengthening Cooperation, Resilience and Cohesion in the Adriatic-Ionian Region

Practical Information

Strategic project EUSAIR FACILITY POINT is co-funded by the European Union through the Interreg IPA ADRION Program 2021-2027

Destination

Georgioupolis is a seaside village, part of the municipality Apokoronas in the Chania regional unit, in the northwestern part of Crete. It was named after Prince George of Greece, high commissioner of the island in the last years of Ottoman occupation.

It is located 39 kilometres (24 miles) east of Chania, about 23 km (14 miles) west of Rethymno and about 100 km (62 miles) west of Heraklion.

Accommodation

For the accommodation of the participants a few hotels with different ratings in the wider area of Georgioupolis have been pre-booked at various rates to suit everyone's budget. The booking procedure for each hotel is described in the list of suggested hotels and participants must always mention the EUSAIR Forum. The tax is paid separately at the hotel upon arrival and is not included in the room rate. The organisation of the Forum will arrange shuttle buses collecting participants from specific spots. All the hotels are within 10-30 min walking time of the conference venue.

Please pay attention to the deadlines for reservations, because May is considered a high-season month for Crete and availability and room rates at the suggested hotels cannot be guaranteed beyond the deadlines mentioned.

How to get to Georgioupolis

There are 2 major airports near Georgioupolis: Chania (CHQ) and Heraklion Airport (HER).

The distance between Chania Airport and Georgioupolis is 42 kilometers, and it takes about 45' drive time (approx. 65€ by taxi)

The distance between Heraklion Airport and Georgioupolis is 99 kilometers, and it takes about 90' drive time (approx. 120 € by taxi)

The organisation of the Forum will arrange shuttle buses from and to Chania airport upon most arrivals and departures of the participants. There is also a public bus service connecting Chania airport with Georgioupolis (www.e-ktel.com), the timetable for May will be published at the end of April and ticket costs 5,10 €.

Climate

Crete belongs to the Mediterranean zone and its climate is characterized as mild. The temperature in May is around 24° C.
